

LexStart Insight

Untangling the web of Web3

We are elated to announce that our managing partner, Anisha, realizing the gap in the Indian crypto start-ups space and the requirement of having a niche expertise, has formed 'The Chain Project' – an advisory firm solely focused on all solutions crypto. The Chain Project helps entrepreneurs set up virtual digital asset businesses around the globe and assist them navigate through business and regulatory challenges. The team has extensive knowledge and experience in the Web3 industry, and provides clients with a wide range of services to support in their success.

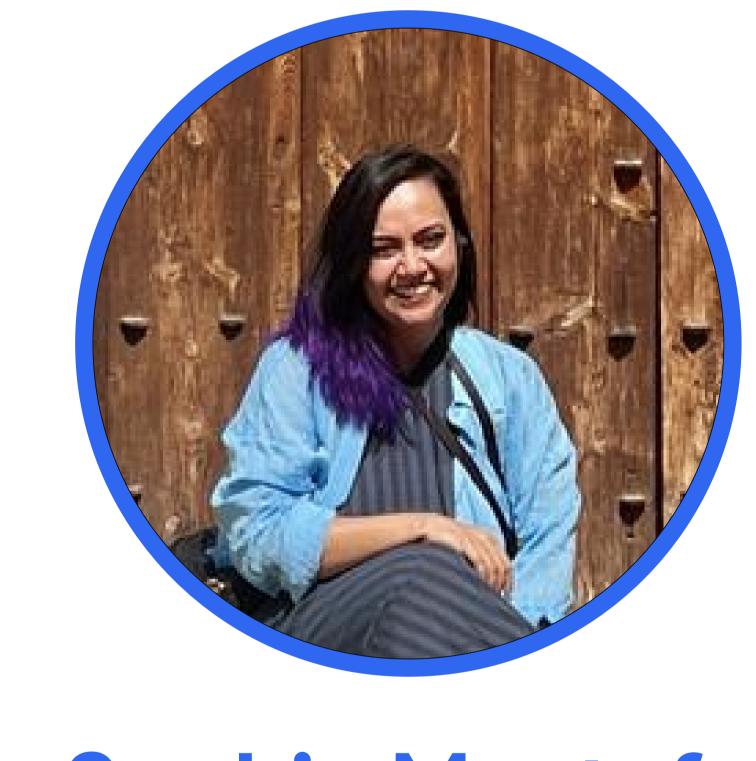

The Chain Project's client include high-level fintech aggregators, NFTs platforms and crypto market places. Their multi-jurisdictional network of experts provides a one-stop solution to players in the Web3 industry.

Visit here today to learn more about how TCP can help you.

New Vertical Alert!

We are excited to announce that we have started a new Funds vertical. Lead by our newest addition, Sophia, we advise leading offshore and onshore GPs on fund structuring and governance; platform deals and captive investment platforms.

Sophia Mustafa Associate Partner

Sophia joins us as an Associate Partner with over 9 years of experience in PE VC and investment funds.

"Very proud to join the best startup law firm! Excited to contribute to the growth of LexStart and work closely with the startup ecosystem."

Anisha Patnaik Wins the HerRising Award 2023

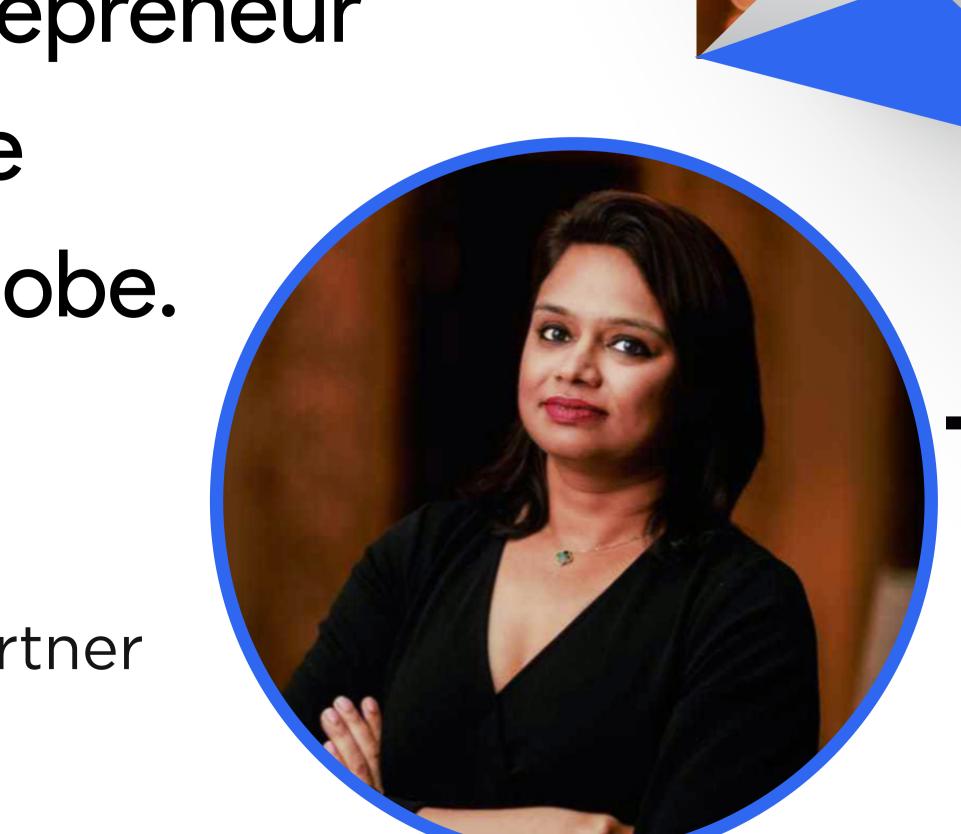

Our Founder, Anisha Patnaik has been bestowed with the prestigious HerRising Award 2023 for Women Entrepreneurs powered by HerKey (formerly JobsForHer). Her constant dedication to the team and her ventures as an entrepreneur and investor have been the backbone of this recognition two years in a row. HerKey organises potentially the biggest conference and career fair for women who want to grow and connect with businesses all over the globe.

Powered by

Anisha Patnaik Founder and Managing Partner

Cracking The Data Protection Compliance!

There has been a lot of talk on the new data protection laws. With the sheer amount of information and misinformation available, it might be overwhelming to figure out your next actionable steps to ensure your compliance. We are decoding the Sectorial Impact of the Data Protection Act, 2023, through actionable steps that you can take in E-Commerce, Hospitality, Edtech, Healthcare, Agritech, Social Media and Gaming sectors.

Still confused? Sign up with us today to get your hands on our personalized cheat-sheet on the new data protection laws!

Sign up

LexGvaan

Have you ever ordered something online, only to receive a product that looks nothing like the glamorous images you saw on the website? Deceptive advertising is a real issue in the world of e-commerce, and it's time to shed some light on it.

Read more

Have you ever considered a woman employee's options in the event a male employee of a different department of the Government of India sexually harasses her? Will the Act and the ICC be able to protect her?

Read more

Rather than scampering for circulars though the SEBI website, we can now refer to the Master Circular for Als issued by SEBI on July 31, 2023 for circulars relevant to AIFs in India.

Read more

The use of publicly available information about a celebrity would not infringe upon the individual's right to publicity and subsequently, use of a player's name, image, and other performance data in NFTs does not amount to infringement of their personality rights.

Read more

Mystery Mime Madness

